THE PRIEST MAY BE EXCOMMUNICATED. Father Smith announced yesterday that he had yed a letter from Monsignor Satolli announce ing that if Father Murphy did not vacate the parish house of St. Joseph's Church within four days he would be excommunicated. Father Murphy days he would be excommunicated. Father Murphy says that he has received no notice frem the Apostolic Delegate to vacate the house. The letter referred to by Dr. Smith was written to Bishop Wigger, it was learned, announcing his sanction of the Bishop's removal of Father Murphy from the parish house. Monsignor Satolit expressed his regrets at the step, but upheld the Bishop on all of his points against the dispossessed priest. Bishop Wigger last night sent Father Murphy an official notice, it was said, that unless he vacates the house by to-morrow he will be excommunicated.

Another matter has come up in the same church which no doubt will be brought to the notice of Monsignor Satolii. Edward Cunningham, a member of the Board of Managers of the Catholic Club, accuses Father Smith with refusing to administer the sacrament to him in his present illness, because he would not sign an agreement that the club was desirous of discontinuing the suit recently begun against Smith for damages for busting the club from its room.

An indictment of Moses P. Smith, the defaulting Collector of South Grange Township, has been found by the Grand Jury.

SLAUGHTERING THE WILD DUCKS. A THOUSAND SPORTSMEN OPEN THE SEASON ABOUT THE CELERY FLATS OF THE SUSQUEHANNA.

Havre de Grace, Md., Nov. 2 (Special).-The gunning season on the Susquehanna flats and the Gun-powder and Middle rivers opens with more ducks and more sportsmen than have been seen here for five years. Over 1,000 gunners have been blazing away on the famous celery flats of the Susquehanna the last two days, and it is roughly susquehanns the last two days, and it is roughly estimated that they have kfiled 10,000 ducks, mostly redheads, blackheads and bald pates. In the other varieties, however, the game has never been more plentiful. When the first shots were fired, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, the opening of the season under the law, the ducks rose in clouds from the wild celery marsh, and five and six were easily killed at a single fire. BUMPING AROUND IN A FOG.

VESSELS IN THE UPPER BAY HAD SOME NARROW ESCAPES WHILE THE WHITE MIST LASTED.

For nearly two hours yesterday morning navigation on the Upper Bay was nearly suspended by a dense fog, which blew up through the Narrows and blotted out every landmark. It came with such suddenness that many vessels were caught away from their piers, and had great difficulty in reaching a place of safety. During the time that it lasted all the boats that cauld do so lay quietly at their wharves. The South Brooklyn ferryboat West Brooklyn had several narrow escapes on her $:30 trip to this city. Near Governor's Island a Staten $30 trip to this city. Near Governor's Island a Staten Island ferryboat ran across her bows, passing so closely that an active man could have sprung from one to the other. Only a moment afterward the big freight boat Pequot, from Fall River, almost grazed her stern.

Two Annex boats, one bound for Jersey City, the other for Brooklyn, escaped each other just off the Battery. A New-York Central Railroad lighter got lost in the fog and brought up against the end of the Farge Office pier, where she tied up until the fog lifted. The Ellis and Bedlow's Island boats stopped running.

log lifted. The same stopped running.

The fog lifted as suddenly as it had settled down. It was well it did, for between the fractery and Governor's Island a crowd of ferryboats, tugs with clumsy tows and steamers of various kinds had collected in such a small compass that there was denger of serious collisions.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PASSES A RES LUTION THANKING THOSE WHO SECURED IT. There was an unusually large attendance of mem bers of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday at the regular monthly meeting. The result of the Re peal bill struggle brought together many of the members, as it was an occasion for congratula tions on all sides. The report of the special com mittee appointed last July, handed in by its chair man, John Claffin, was unanimously adopted, and explained the work done by the committee to in fluence the vote in both houses of Congress for the Repeal bill. A. Foster Higgins, the chairman o the Committee on Harbor and Shipping, made a report on the North River Bridge bill, which City of Birmingham, Savanah, Savanah ... caused considerable discussion. Woodworth, of Rochester, with converting notes of the plaintiff amounting to $16,000 to his own use, and who spent a night in Ludlow Street Jail before his wife went to the Sheriff's office and gave ball for him, has written a letter to The Tribune to say that the transaction for which he was arrested was only one of many for which he was arrested was only one of many in which the parties were concerned. Their dealings together, Mr Hotchkiss asserts, amount to a total of $101,000, and that on several occasions Woodworth used large amounts from notes and first-mortgage bonds owned by Hotchkiss for his own benefit. There is now, according to Hotchkiss, a debit balance on Hotchkiss & Co.'s ledger against Woodworth of $11,000. Hotchkiss intimates that he will bring a suit for damages for $5,000 against Woodworth. CHURCH TRUSTEES DELAYED BY THE RAPID TRANSIT QUESTION.

ST. PAUL'S METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONGREGA TION IS READY TO BUILD, BUT CANNOT TELL

copal Church is eagerly awaiting the time when its trustees shall select for it a site for a new church. The matter has been under discussion for the last two years, but since the old meet ing-house at Fourth-ave, and Twenty-second-st. has been torn down and the congregation of St Paul's has had to meet elsewhere (at No. 150 Fifthave.), the question has grown to be of the first importance. A meeting of the board of trustees was held last A meeting of the board of the Monday, but no definite action in regard to a new site was taken. The trustees say they are held back by the stoppage of the work in the Rapid Transit Commission. They can not decide on a site for the church until the rapid transit questions. tion is determined. They do not want to purchase a lot and find that an elevated train is to run by their door, nor do they, on the other hand, wish to be a mile away from the general line of travel. The trustees have been looking at sites as far north as Harlem. They have several places in view on the West Side, and also some in the central portion of the city below the Park. It is not a question of money that is delaying the trustees of St. Paul's, for that church is known to be one of the richest Methodist Episcopal churches in the country. Dr. Palmer said last evening: "We regret that we are kept from build-ing, because at this time the work would give needed employment to many laborers; but until the lines of rapid transit are determined we are not willing to choose our site."

Judge E. L. Fancher, president of the Board of Trustees of the church, would say nothing last even-ing concerning the movement of St. Paul's uptown, except that nothing definite had been done.
